Gospel Meditation:

In today's Gospel, Jesus fashioned a whip and "cleaned house." He drove out the animals, the sellers and the money changers from the Temple. What do you need to clean out from your heart? Pray for the strength to do it.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús tomó un látigo y "limpió la casa". Él sacó a los animales, los vendedores y el dinero de los cambistas del Templo ¿Qué necesita usted limpiar de su corazón? Ore por la fuerza para hacerlo.

During the Fall Months When Flu is Easily Spread, it is good to remember some rules of charity: Wash your hands thoroughly with soap and water and use hand sanitizer regularly. If you are sick, stay home from Mass; and if your children are sick, keep them home from Religious Education. Teach your children to cover their coughs and sneezes..and remember, it is not a sin to miss Mass when you are sick

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly.
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Mass on Veteran's Day, which is on Tuesday, November 11, will be at 10:00 am, and not the usual 5:30 pm

MISSING MAN TABLE

This table is set up at the entrance to the Church. It is reserved to honor our missing loved ones and missing comrades in arms. We recall those missing from each of the five services – Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard. This Missing Man Table symbolizes that they are here with us, in spirit.

The tablecloth is white, symbolizing the purity of their motives when answering the call to duty.

The single red rose displayed in a vase reminds us of the life of each of the missing and the loved ones and friends who keep the faith, awaiting answers.

The vase is tied with a red ribbon, symbol of our continued determination to account for the missing.

The slices of lemon on the plate remind us of the bitter fate of those captured and missing in foreign lands.

The spilled salt symbolizes the tears endured by those missing and their families who seek answers.

The Bible represents the strength gained through faith that sustains our country, a country founded as One Nation Under God.

The glass is inverted, which symbolizes their inability to share this day with all of us.

The lighted candle will welcome them home and represents the Light of Christ in all of our lives.

The chair is empty .. they are missing and we await their return.

Every gift, regardless of the size, is vital to the success of the Catholic Services Appeal. Our goal this year is to have 100% participation. Please give in accordance with your means.

Our Lady Mother of Divine Providence, principal patroness of the island of Puerto Rico was declared by Pope Paul VI, by a decree signed on November 19, 1969. In this document it was also decreed that the Virgin's solemnity be transferred from January 2 to November 19, the day that the island was discovered. The intention was to join together the two great loves of the Puerto Ricans: love of their gorgeous island and love for the Mother of God. The oldest carving, which dates from 1853, was the one chosen to be solemnly crowned during the meeting of the Latin American Bishops Council (CELAM) that took place in San Juan de Puerto Rico on November 5, 1976. On the eve of this event, the image was vilely burnt in the Parish of Little St. Therese in Santurce. And in this condition, the image was crowned amid the emotion and tears of thousands of her children and in the presence of cardinals, archbishops and bishops from all Latin America. The burnt statue was sent to Spain to be restored and is presently awaiting the construction of the projected Grand National Sanctuary, where it will be placed..
