GOSPEL MEDITATION: In honor of today's feast, during Mass try to minimize all distractions during the Eucharistic Prayer and focus on the sacrifice being offered on the altar.

WORD OF LIFE: "The fundamental human right, the presupposition of every other right, is the right to life itself. This is true of life from the moment of conception until its natural end. Abortion, consequently, cannot be a human right – it is the very opposite. It is 'a deep wound in society.'" — Pope Benedict XVI, September 7, 2007 Meeting with the Authorities and the Diplomatic Corps, © 2007 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission.

PALABRA DE VIDA: "El derecho humano fundamental, el presupuesto de todos los demás derechos, es el derecho a la vida misma. Esto vale para la vida desde el momento de la concepción hasta la muerte natural. En consecuencia, el aborto no puede ser un derecho humano; es exactamente lo opuesto. Es una 'profunda herida social'". — Papa Benedicto XVI, 7 de septiembre de 2007 Encuentro con las autoridades y el cuerpo diplomático, © 2007 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Se utiliza con permiso.

Helpline Angel Training

Volunteers are needed to answer and respond to calls made to the Diocesan Pro-Life Helpline. Most calls are from women facing a difficult pregnancy or women and men turning to the church for help after an abortion. There is a great need for Helpline Angels from throughout the diocese and training will be provided. Talk with our Pastoral Care Coordinator and she will help you decide if you are called to this important ministry. Helpline Angel Training will be held at St. William Parish in Round Rock on June 13. For more information or to register for the training, contact Mary Helen Russell at (512) 949-2488.

The feast of Corpus Christi is one time when our Lord in the Blessed sacrament is exposed not just to faithful Catholics, but to all the world. This is a time when Catholics can show their love for Christ in the Real Presence by honoring Him in a very public way. It is also a wonderful way in which we can show our love for our neighbors by bringing Our Lord and Savior closer to them. So many conversions are a result of Eucharistic Adoration experienced from inside the Church. How many more would there be if we could reach those who only drive by the Church in worldly expectations?

Today we celebrate this Great Feast Day of the Body and Blood of Christ with a Eucharistic Procession following the 12 Noon Mass. At the end of Mass, the celebrant will carry the Monstrance containing the Blessed Sacrament, vested in the Cope, down the center aisle, and out of the Church along with the Altar Servers and Deacons. You are invited to join in the procession. The celebrant will carry the Eucharist to four Altars on the Church grounds, representing the four corners of the world and the four ends of Jesus' Cross. The four Altars reflect the diversity of our Parish.

The first Altar is located directly in front of the Church. The second Altar is located adjacent to the Church, on the west side. The third is on the breezeway behind the Church. The fourth and final Altar is next to the Parish Hall. Processing to each Altar, Eucharistic Hymns will be sung. At each Altar there will be a short time of Adoration, a Gospel Reading, a prayer said by the Celebrant and Benediction, then we will proceed to the next Altar.

The procession will end as we return into the Church with a final Blessing with Benediction. Please follow the celebrant after Mass, and walk reverently and joyfully in the procession.

Prayer after a natural disaster

The following prayer was composed by the Diocese of Austin for those affected by the recent storms in Central Texas.

God of majesty and compassion, You set the earth on its foundation and all elements of nature obey your Command.

You created us and know the fragility of human life. Help us [or our sisters and brothers] in our time of trouble; hold back the damaging winds and contain the waters that threaten our community so our fears may turn into praise of your goodness.

Have mercy on those who have died in the flood waters. Welcome them into your Kingdom of peace and joy. Bring consolation to those who have lost loved ones and friends.

In your compassion look upon us and give us tears to mourn their loss and strength to assist in the needed rebuilding. Protects us and help us to live for you. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Dios de majestad y compasión, Tú colocaste a la tierra en su base y todos los elementos de la naturaleza obedecen tus órdenes.

Tú nos creaste y sabes la fragilidad de la vida humana. Ayúdanos [o a nuestros hermanos y hermanas] en nuestro tiempo problemático; calma las tormentas y contén las aguas que amenazan a nuestra comunidad de manera que nuestros miedos se tornen en alabanza de tu bondad.

Ten compasión de aquellos que han muerto en las tormentas y en la inundación. Dales la bienvenida en tu Reino de paz y gozo. Da Consuelo a aquellos que han perdido a seres amados y a amigos.

En tu compasión míranos y danos lágrimas para llorar su pérdida y fortalécenos para ayudar en la necesitada reconstrucción. Protégenos y ayúdanos a vivir para ti.

Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor.
